Making The Pension Act Of 2006 Work For You!

The January AFP Chapter meeting will be held on Wednesday, January 17 at The Salvation in Peoria. Our guest speaker, Steve Garrington, CFRE, will present on the Private Pension Act of 2006 and its impact to your donors and organization.

Steve Garrington is the "Special Gifts and Planned Giving" Representative with The Salvation Army in central Illinois and eastern Iowa. He is on the board of the Quad Cities AFP and holds his CFRE. He has also passed the series 6 and 63 and Iowa Life Insurance tests. In his work with The Salvation Army, Steve was chosen to spend two weeks at the site of the WTC in New York City as Chief of Logistics, and six weeks in New Orleans after Katrina as the Deputy Incident Commander.

Steve graduated from Marshalltown (Iowa) High School as a "highly average" student, but went on to graduate with honors from Westmar College in LeMars, Iowa. His greatest accomplishment at college was meeting and marrying his wife of 33 years, Linda.

While a senior at college, Steve enlisted in the Iowa National Guard, and upon graduation, was sent to basic training at Fort Polk, LA. During his 26 years of military duty he rose from the rank of Private to that of Lt. Colonel, and held commands at company, special unit and Brigade levels. He attended many schools including the Command and General's Staff Course, and the USMC Amphibious Assault Course. He was also the first person in the military to be awarded the Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal for volunteer work with The Salvation Army.

He was (from 1971 to 1999), employed as a school teacher with the North Scott School System. He earned his Masters Degree in Education from Western Illinois
